Liberia was a hot favorite in the opening dash and had no trouble winning. She outclassed the field. After waiting on Shipshape, the pacemaker, she breezed to the front at the head of the stretch and won easily by two lengths from Rawhide, which was a length before Buckleya, third, which closed very fast. Shipshape stopped at the end.

Glorifier was the favorite in the first part of the Matron Stakes. Blucher and Bedouin were added, but neither was well thought of. Bedouin was a 20 to 1 shot, and Blucher quoted at 25 to 1 Bedouin jumped away in front with Dandellon, and they raced in close order for a quarter, where Glorifier closed. It was a drive to the dip, where Dandellon and Blucher quit. In the last sixteenth Bedouin drew away a bit and won by a good neck from Glorifier, who beat Dandellon a length and a half for the place.

Thistle Heather went to the fr soon after the start, made all the r ning and won easily by four lens from Briarthorpe, which was second the way. Sais was third, two lens Bells Strome and the Duryea entry, from the were heavily supported by the talent, away.
